Temperatures start to rise from April and continue until June. In places near the eastern Aravalli range, the average summer temperature varies from 40°C to 45°C, although the highest can be 49°C. Compared to the temperature in Bikaner, Jaisalmer, Phalodi and Barmer, areas of Mount Abu and Udaipur, have lower temperatures from 31.5 ° C to 38 ° C. Summer nights in Rajasthan are quite pleasant, when the temperature drops to 20 ° C to 29 ° C. Monsoon: Changing from arid to humid climate, Rajasthan receives a very little precipitation. The monsoon begins in late June and lasts until mid-September. The average annual precipitation varies from one area to another. Mount Abu, which receives the highest annual rainfall receiving about 163.8 cm of precipitation, meanwhile, is the lowest ranging from 10 cm northwest of Jaisalmer to 30 cm in Bikaner. Winter: In contrast to hot summer weather, winter temperatures drop to as low as 10 °C. January, is the coldest month of the year even -2°C at night. The best time to experience Rajasthan's live life is between October and March. The state of Rajasthan is well connected to all major Indian cities by rail, road and air. By road: Close to some highways, especially National Highway 8 (NH 8), India's first 4-8-lane highway helps Rajasthan connect with all major parts of the country. Besides, the state is even privileged with some state highways. The Rajasthan State Transport Corporation, along with a number of private operators, serves the site. By rail: Owns many Indian stations connecting the state with major cities in India. Several main stations are located in Ajmer, Bikaner, Jaipur, Jodhpur, Kota and Udaipur. Although Jaipur railway station is Rajasthan's main railway station, Kota railway station is the only part of electricity, through which three Rajdhani Expresses run. 'Palace on Wheels' is a world-famous train that runs through Rajasthan. Besides, other trains connecting Rajasthan with other Indian states are Marudhar Express, Gujarat Mail, Mandore Express, Shatabdi Express, Intercity Express and more. Air: Rajasthan is well connected to all major Indian cities as well as abroad through its six airports. Sanganer Airport in Jaipur is the state's only international airport. Other airports such as Maharana Pratap Airport in Udaipur, Jaisalmer Airport, Jodhpur Airport, Nal Airport (Bikaner) and Kota Airport are domestic airports where airlines such as Air India, Jet Airways... Active. Thar Desert: The Thar Desert or the Great Indian Desert, along Pakistan's border in northwest India, are the country's largest deserts. Spread over an area of 200,000 km2, this barren desert attracts people around the globe. Besides its immenseness, the desert is even famous annual festivals held there. The main attraction of this fair is the best dressed camel contest. Besides wearing traditionally brightly colored clothes, locals even wear their camel clothes to participate in the competition. The fair even includes competitions on the best towels, mustaches, etc. and shows performed by puppeteers, snake charmers, folk dancers, etc. Mount Abu: Mount Abu is said to be the mythical beauty of Rajasthan. Located in the middle of the flourishing green forest at an altitude of 1,219 m is Rajasthan's only hill station. The highest peak of the Aravali Mountains along with waterfalls flowing through lush green forests and lake formation makes it one of the most popular honeymoon destinations in India. The Delwara Jain temples built in the middle of diverse plants and animals are a must-visit. Royal Rajasthan on Wheels: Royal Rajasthan on Wheels, a train launched by the Rajasthan Tourism Development Group, will make you experience the royal history of Rajasthan. The memorable journey through the main attractions of Jaipur, Jaisalmer, Bikaner, Jodhpur, Chittorgarh, Udaipur, Bharatpur etc. is a lifelong experience. On that path despite the different places, it gradually reflects the rich royal tradition and culture of the state. Services and luxury are offered while on board no less than a 5-star hotel. City Palace: The giant city palace in Rajasthan is a combination of Mughal architecture and Rajasthan tradition. The palace consists of two magnificent buildings such as Mubarak Mahal and Chandra Mahal. Chandra Mahal, next door to housing a museum, remains home to the royal family of Maharaja of Jaipur. Chittorgarh Fortress: Chittorgarh Fortress is located at an altitude of 180 m on an area of 280 hectares reflecting the essence of reverence for the bravery, sacrifice, nationalism and knights of the Middle Ages. This is on the booth that has witnessed three bloody sieges. ABMOD Last updated on: March 4, 2020 You can view and download Rajasthan Maps for free.
